

God's Omnipresence

Psalm 139

*Search me, O God, and know all my heart,
Thou knowest my being in every part.
Nothing is hid from Thine all-seeing eye;
Thou compasses my path wherever it lies.*

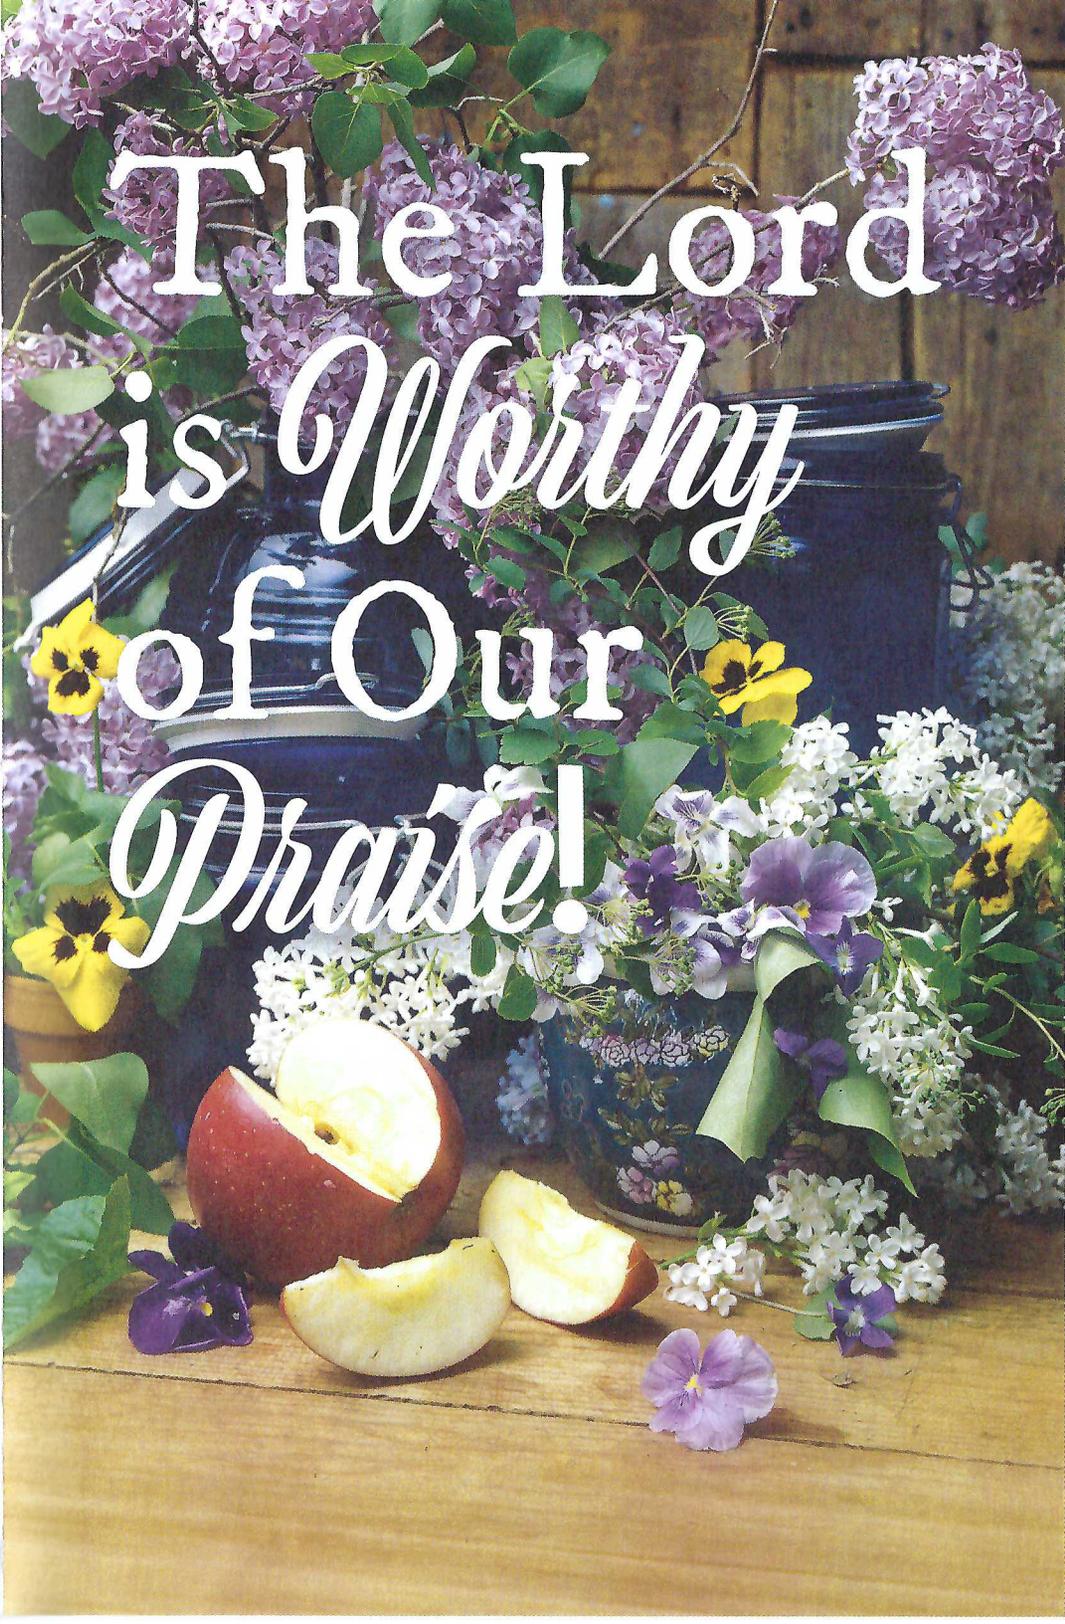

*Thou knowest the words that spring from my tongue,
Inside and out, however far flung.
If my bed were in hell, Thou wouldst be there,
Or ascended to heaven, I'm still in Thy care.*

*If I were to dwell in the depths of the sea,
Or the wings of the morning, there wilt Thou be.
If I should say, "The darkness will hide,"
Surely Thy presence is there by my side.*

*Darkness and light are the same unto Thee;
Wherever I go, Lord, there Thou wilt be.
There is no place beyond Thy scope;
Therefore in Thee do I always hope.*
