

Thanksgiving Praise

We praise You, our God,
on Thanksgiving Day ~
Your glory reflects on our faces.

Our hearts are focused on mercy so great ~
You fill us with joy by your graces.

Rememb'ring the gift of Jesus our Lord ~
Your love never fails to amaze us.

Awesome, unequalled,
with love so divine ~
Our voices resound with your praises!

In the midst of the turkey, cranberries and pumpkin pies—somewhere between football games and naps—let's make time for real thanks-giving this year. Not just a rote prayer of thanks for material blessings—though thanks for such blessings should not be left unsaid—but take time to thank God for “serious” blessings. Thank Him for His holiness, faithfulness and justice. Thank Him for the gift of His Son, Jesus Christ, and for His sacrifice on Calvary and the everlasting life He purchased for us with His blood. Thank Him for the guidance of His Holy Spirit in our lives.

Giving thanks is “catchy.” Once you make it a habit, not only will you be more content, but people around you will be, also.

Covenant News

Our ministry for November is The Bread of the Mighty Food Bank. Bring your Thanksgiving Day canned and dry goods to share with those who are hungry. Bread of the Mighty Food Bank, celebrating 35 years of serving the community, is a private non-profit organization.

We collect, sort, store and distribute donated food and basic essentials to 170+ non-profit agency partners such as food pantries, churches, homeless shelters and other organizations who then distribute food in their communities to directly feed the hungry.

Covenant Thanksgiving

Covenant will celebrate Thanksgiving together, tonight at 6:00 pm.

The church will provide the turkey and dressing, you bring the rest. Bring a friend or two or three.

"Gratitude can transform common days into Thanksgiving, turn routine jobs into joy, and change ordinary opportunities into blessings." — William Arthur Ward
