

Money Wisdom

Money is neither good nor ill. It is a force, like water or wind or electricity, and in itself is therefore without moral quality. It is a force made good or bad by its use.

Dr. N. Dwight Hillis

It's good to have money and the things that money can buy, but it's good, too, to check up once in a while and make sure you haven't lost the things that money can't buy.

George Horace Lorimer

Martin Luther used to say that each one needed a three-fold conversion, that of his heart, his head and his pocketbook. We need to feel that every dollar in our keeping belongs to God and must be used so as to best promote the interests of His kingdom. The greatest thing you can do for God and yourself today is to consecrate everything to the Lord.

The Preacher's Scrap Book

For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

Matthew 16:26a

He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep to gain that which he cannot lose.

Missionary Jim Elliot

It is more blessed to give than to receive.

Acts 20:35

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven . . . For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

Matthew 6:19-21

Covenant Ministries

Our ministry for March is the St. Francis House. Their mission is empowering families with children to achieve permanent and stable self-sufficiency by providing case management; nutritious meals; and educational, health and career resources; in a safe and secure environment.

Next week is Palm Sunday

Last of the Sentence Sermons

If some men grew physically at the rate they grow spiritually, they would spend their lives in a play-pen.

Bad habits are like a comfortable bed; easy to get into, but hard to get out of.

Blessed is the man who refrains from speaking until he knows what he is talking about.

Do not regret growing old; it is a privilege many do not have.

Forbidden "fruit" is responsible for many a bad "jam."
