

What a Gathering

On that bright and golden morning,
when the Son of Man shall come,
And the radiance of His glory we shall see;
When from every clime and nation
He shall call His people home,
What a gathering of the ransomed that will be!

When the blest, who sleep in Jesus,
at His bidding shall arise
From the silence of the grave,
and from the sea,
And with bodies all celestial
they shall meet Him in the skies,
What a gathering and rejoicing there will be!

When our eyes behold the city,
with its many mansions bright,
And its river, calm and restful, flowing free;
When the friends that death hath parted
shall in bliss again unite,
What a gathering and a greeting there will be!

O the King is surely coming,
and the time is drawing nigh,
When the blessed day of promise we shall see;
Then the changing "in a moment,"
"in the twinkling of an eye,"
And forever in His presence we shall be.

Think About It

God has two thrones: one in the highest heaven and the other in the lowliest heart.

The only exercise some people get is jumping to conclusions, sidestepping responsibility, dodging issues, passing the buck and pressing their luck!

A smile can add a great deal to one's face value.

Witnessing is simply "show and tell."

Failure is following the line of least persistence.
