

Psalm 23

My Shepherd will supply my need: Jehovah is His name:
In pastures fresh He makes me feed, Beside the living stream.
He brings my wandering spirit back, When I forsake His ways:
And leads me, for His mercy's sake, In paths of truth and grace.

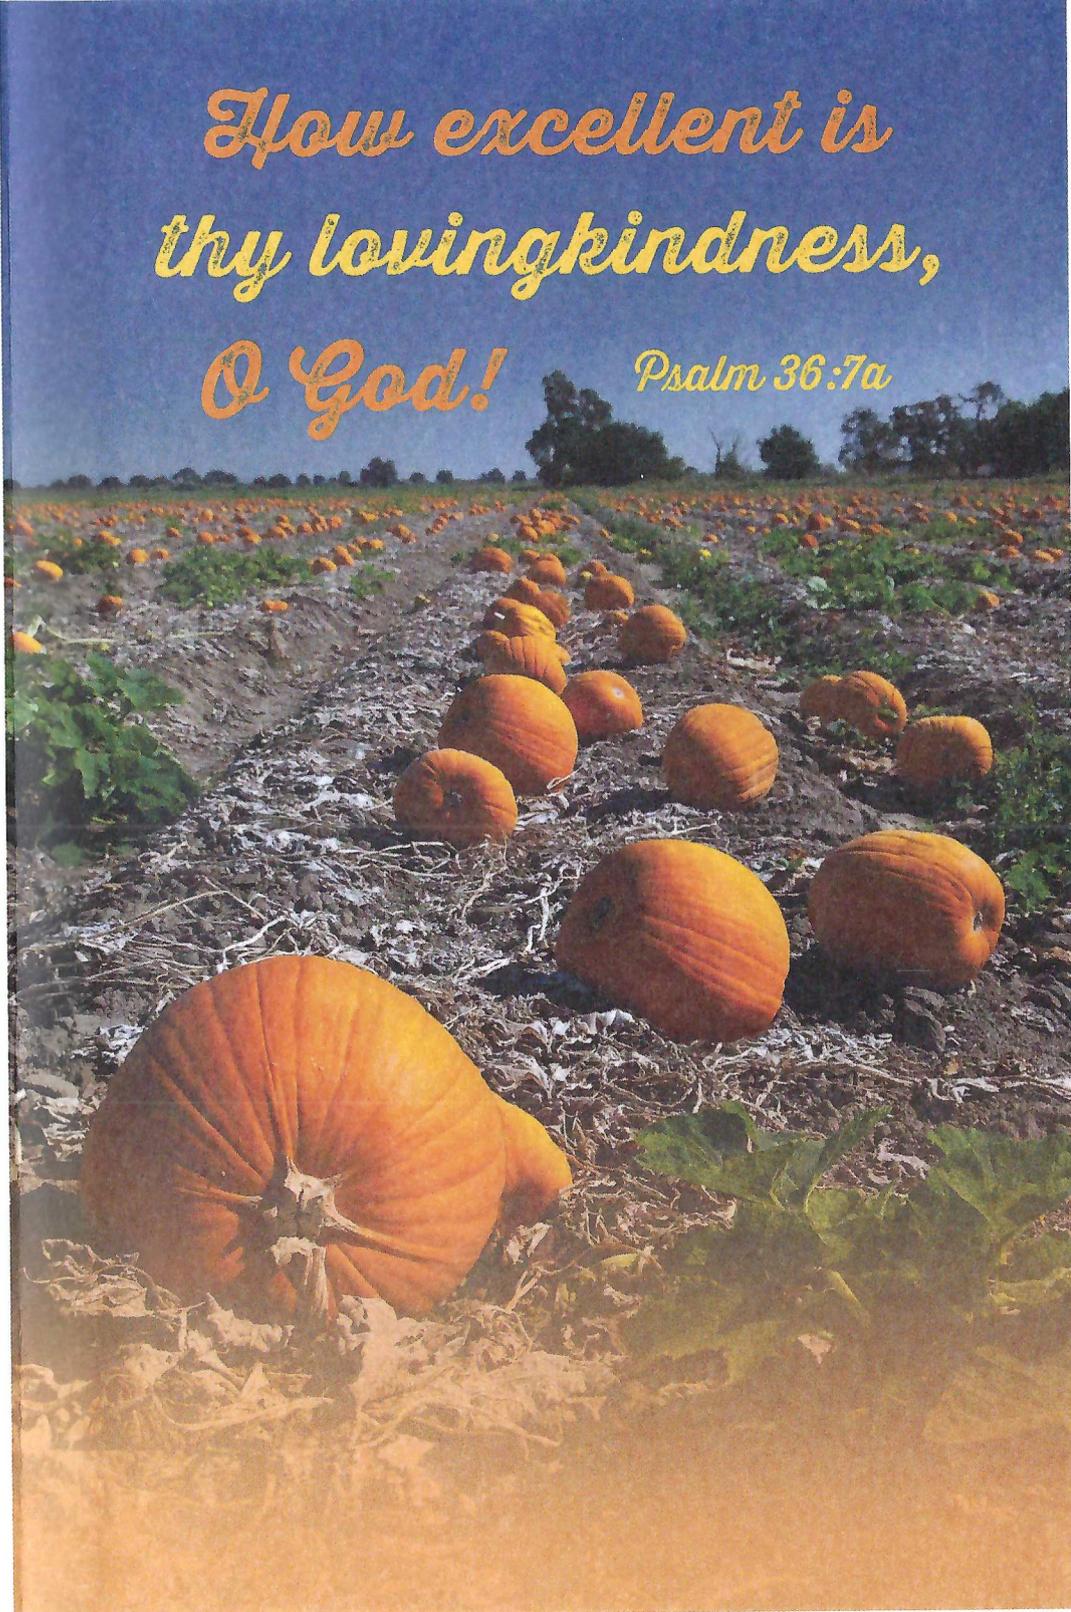

When I walk through the shades of death Your presence is my stay:
One word of Your supporting breath Drives all my fears away.
Your hand, in sight of all my foes, Does still my table spread:
My cup with blessings overflows, Your oil anoints my head.

The sure provisions of my God Attend me all my days:
O may Your House be my abode, And all my work be praise.
There would I find a settled rest, While others go and come:
No more a stranger, or a guest, But like a child at home.

Pass It On

When your heart is full of love,
When you've more than you can eat,
When you're tired of all your clothes,
Pass them on.

When you hear of someone's need,
When you have more than you spend,
Open up your heart with love,
And pass your money on.

When someone has a lot to bear,
When someone needs a helping hand,
Then take whatever you have,
And pass it on.

For life is meant for giving,
And for loving all you can,
So always take what God gives you,
And pass it on.
